Free Internet Access Information

Many of the educational resources we use at NCCES require access to the internet. There are several community resources available where you can gain free access if you do not have access to a computer or the internet.

1. NCCES school library is open to students and their parents/guardians after school several days of the week. Please contact the librarian to verify the schedule (978-345-2701 extension 416).
2. Libraries. Nearly all Massachusetts libraries offer free internet access to users. Find the location and contact information for the library nearest you by calling the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners at 617-725-1860. You can also find a directory at <http://mblc.state.ma.us/libraries/directory/index.php>
